ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS /DISCLAIMER

If the host is obliged to effect changes in carrying out the event or to cancel the event, without intent or gross negligence, in cases of force majeure or due to official decree or for safety reasons, the host is not liable to pay damages to the participant. The host will not be liable for property damages or financial damages which were not intended or gross negligent or caused by him, his legal representatives or his vicarious agents. The host, his legal representatives or his vicarious agents will only be liable for damages caused by the injury of the life, body or health, if it is their fault.

DECLARATION OF CONSENT OF THE PARTICIPANT

In case I will participate in the 10K GARDA TRENTINO , non competitive race I will accept the above mentioned disclaimer expressed by the host. I will not claim any damages against sponsors of the run, against the town of Arco and Riva del Garda or against the owners of private paths or their representatives due to damages or injuries of any kind which were caused by me participating in the run. It is a prerequisite of participating in this NON COMPETITIVE RACE to have trained sufficiently and to be physically healthy. I assert that I have undergone a medical health check before participating. Furthermore, I assert that the year of birth I mentioned is correct and that I will not pass my number on to another person. I agree that the photographs, films, interviews taken of me during the event are allowed to be used for radio and television, advertising or books without me claiming any allowance for them. I am aware of the fact that I will be disqualified if I leave the course of the officially measured marathon track, take shortcuts or make use of technical auxiliaries (car, bicycle, public transport, etc.). I am aware of the fact that I will be disqualified if I change the official number in any way, especially if I make the advertising print invisible or irrerecognizable or if I have people accompanying me by bicycle or the like. In case I do not participate (illness, business trip, etc.), there is no claim for refund of the participation fee unless the host is responsible for me not participating.

After the registration has been effected, there is no claim for refund of the participation fee or for issuing a starting voucher for a later event – not even in case of illness. The organization fee is paid by a one-time direct debit or by credit card. Incorrect details and administrative charges caused by them are at the expense of the participant.
